Contents of Volume 6

Number 1

John O'Connor	1	Editorial
Articles
Michael S. Simons	3	An overview of international trends in hospitality and tourism law
Mary Fish and Jean D. Gibbons	11	U.S. Virgin Islands' international tourism: an industry at the crossroads
Luiz Moutinho	15	Role of budgeting in planning, implementing, and monitoring hotel marketing strategies
Dennis H. Ferguson, Florence Berger and Paula Francese	23	Intrapreneuring in hospitality organizations
Jeffrey D. Schaffer	33	Competitive strategies in the lodging industry
Reviews and Features
Discussion Paper
Meral Korzay	43	Tourism education in Turkey
Viewpoint
D. Leslie	49	Advanced technological aids and control
David Freed	51	Time management: a rejoinder
Kate Drew	52	The work and education of chefs
Letter to the Editor
J. Harrison	57	Catering management and the entrepreneurial dimension
News	59	IHA Council Resolution
Book Reviews	61
Books Received	63
Calendar	65
Software Survey Section	I	TIMEBOSS

Number 2

John O'Connor	67	Editorial
Articles
Stephen Yam	69	Training tomorrow's hotel managers in China
Robert J. Martin	75	U.S. gaming operations: the hospitality subset of the future
Robert C. Lewis	83	The measurement of gaps in the quality of hotel services
Pauline J. Sheldon, Juanita C. Liu and Chuck Y. Gee	89	The status of research in the lodging industry
Tom Baum	97	Introducing educational innovation in hospitality studies: a case study in practical curriculum change
Clare Kelliher and Keith Johnson	103	Personnel management in hotels — some empirical observations

Number 2 cont'd

Reviews and Features

Discussion Paper

D. A. McDowell and S. L. Fawcett — 109 — The case for an independent catering research base — with specific reference to the enzymic tenderisation of meat and to discontinuous food production equipment

Research Note

Carol Newman — 113 — Caterer's awareness of food preservation developments

Book Reviews — 115

Calendar — 117

Software Survey Section — I — TIMEBOSS

Number 3

John O'Connor — 119 — Editorial

Articles

Yvonne Guerrier — 121 — Hotel managers' careers and their impact on hotels in Britain

Melvin N. Barrington and Michael D. Olsen — 131 — Concept of service in the hospitality industry

W. Terry Umbreit and Robert W. Eder — 139 — Linking hotel manager behavior with outcome measures of effectiveness

Krishna S. Dhir — 149 — Analysis of consumer behaviour in the hospitality industry: an application of social judgement theory

Roger Collison and Janet S. Colwill — 163 — Food waste in public houses and restaurants and customer attitudes

Ken W. McCleary — 169 — A framework for national tourism marketing

Abraham Pizam and Roger Calantone — 177 — Beyond psychographics — values as determinants of tourist behavior

Reviews and Features

Book Review — 183

News — 185

Calendar — 187

Software Survey Section — I

Number 4

Paul R. Gamble and Ian D. Mitchell — 189 — Editorial

Articles

Audrey C. McCool — 191 — Some considerations in developing expert systems for the hospitality industry

Ephraim Nissan — 199 — Knowledge-based computer systems for tasks in hospitality management or related areas: accommodation (lodging, alimentation) and leisure

Number 4 cont'd

Sammy Garber, Ephraim Nissan and Amnon Shur	203	The 'Wining and Dining' project — I. 'The Wine Adviser', a deductive database
Ephraim Nissan	207	The 'Wining and Dining' project — II. 'FIDEL_GASTRO', an expert system for gastronomy and terminal food-processing
Michael L. Kasavana	217	Hotel multiprocessor environments: guest and nonguest operated interfaces
Leslie E. Cummings	225	Information technology supporting fast food phone-in order responsiveness
Marian Whitaker	229	Overcoming the barriers to successful implementation of information technology in the U.K. hotel industry
David Kirk	237	Computer systems for energy management in hotels

Reviews and Features

Viewpoint Steve Williams	243	Improving management effectiveness through the use of computer systems in Food Service Operations
Book Review	247
News	249
Calendar	253
Software Survey Section	I
Volume Contents, Author and Key Word Indexes, Volume 6, 1987	i	